Lt. Julian Harvey is currently the Bureau Commander of the Anaheim Family Justice Center which handles investigations of domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, elder abuse and missing persons. Lt. Harvey is also the President of the Anaheim Family Justice Center Foundation.

Former assignments include:

- Air Support Commander
- Training Bureau Commander
- Watch Commander
- Gang Detail Sergeant
- Internal Affairs
- Police Helicopter Pilot
- Crime Task Force Investigator
- Gang Investigator
- SWAT Team Member
- Field Training Officer

Lt. Harvey's current assignment at the AFJC includes the supervision and management of the supervisors and detectives charged with investigating the reported crimes and incidents listed above. Lt. Harvey also manages the operations in the AFJC, which is home to eight in-house partners including the District Attorney's Office, the Anaheim City Attorney's Office, CSP, Orange County Social Services, CalWorks, victim advocates and shelters. Together with the Anaheim's police staff, these partners provide collaborative, complimentary wrap-around services to approximately 300 clients per month. In addition, Lt. Harvey serves as the President of the Anaheim Family Justice Center Foundation which delivers direct support to victims suffering from, and recovering from family violence. The Foundation also focuses on outreach in the community to promote the Center and to promote the collaborative model in the hope of interrupting the cycle of family violence.
